

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

BRENTON

ROY

INGRAHAM

Brenton Roy Ingraham, born May 16, 1946, passed away peacefully on February 13, 2026, surrounded by the love of his family. Born and raised in Margaree Valley, Nova Scotia, Brent carried the values of hard work, kindness, and community with him throughout his life.

Brent's education began in the little two-room Frizzleton School, where one of his earliest responsibilities was keeping the coal fire burning, before moving on to North East Margaree Consolidated. His strong work ethic was shaped at a young age while helping his grandfather, Currie, on the family farm—lessons in dedication and perseverance that would guide him throughout his life.

Over the years, Brent's work took him far and wide. He worked at Hiram Shaw's mill before heading to Lynn Lake, Manitoba, where he spent time working in the mine. He later returned home to Nova Scotia to work in the pulp industry. After starting a family, he settled in Port Hood, where he worked with Zutphen Brothers Construction, G & G Trucking, John MacLean Trucking, and John Cameron Trucking. These roles enabled him to travel across Canada and the United States, forming lasting friendships and gathering countless stories and memories along the way.

A devoted community member, Brent served on the Port Hood Credit Union Board, was an active member of the Alpine Snowmobile Club, and dedicated many years to the Port Hood Volunteer Fire Department. In recognition of his service, he received both a Long Service Award and an Exemplary Service Award—honours he wore with quiet pride.

In his younger years, Brent enjoyed attending dances at the Margaree Forks Firehall and spending time celebrating with friends and family. He was an avid fan of the Montreal Canadiens and NASCAR races, and in later years, he took great joy in following his two favourite blind hockey athletes. Above all else, Brent treasured time spent with his family.

Brent is survived by his loving wife of 58 years, Florence (Ross) Ingraham; his sons, Stacey (Julie) of Enfield and Bryce of Calgary; his daughter, Glenna of Antigonish; and his cherished grandchildren, Candace (Dan) of Halifax, Daniel of Windsor, NS, Abby and Ben of Calgary, and his special princess, Mary Ellen MacEachen of Mabou. He is also survived by his sister, Connie of Margaree Valley; his niece, Shelley of Baddeck; and his sister-in-law, Mae MacNeil of Sydney.

He was predeceased by his loving parents, Roy and Gloria (Shaw) Ingraham, and his favourite aunt, Rita Burchell.

The family extends heartfelt thanks to Dr. LaFrance, Dr. Ritter, Lori Ann, the palliative care nurses, paramedics, the Port Hood Fire Department and First Responders, Home Care staff, Continuing Care staff, and special friends Margie, Mary, Tyson, Theresa, Amanda, and Deniese for their compassionate care and support.

Brent will be remembered for his steady presence, his deep love for family and community, and the countless lives he touched through his work, service, and friendship. His legacy of kindness, dedication, and quiet strength will live on in all who knew and loved him.

A celebration of Brent's remarkable life has been entrusted to Sunset Funeral Co-op, Margaree Valley, and will be announced at a later date.

Family flowers only please. In lieu of flowers, donations in Brent's memory may be made to the Port Hood Volunteer Fire Department or Central Inverness Hospice Palliative Care.
